

Sensory Pathway

... be a happy, emotionally secure adult whom responds to living in a multisensory world in a positive way. This person will have or have experienced skills to participate and contribute to a community life, enjoying a range of experiences with support alongside their peers

Tracks

A sensory pathway will enable the individual to:

- Access a multi-sensory curriculum and reactive environments.
- Experience a range of therapists
- Be introduced to a wide range of communication pathways
- Be challenged physically
- Be supported to make steps towards independent choice and experience everyday living activities
- Be offered a wide range of sensory challenges through different current topics
- Be offered the opportunity to access a wider curriculum and change or link to other pathways
- Be given full support to use and maintain the skills that they have acquired (Cognitive and physical)

Life Skills Pathway

... be a happy, emotionally secure adult whom can make supported choices and access a wide range of community projects with increasing independence. This person will have the skills to contribute in a positive way within their community.

Tracks

A life skills pathway will enable the individual to...

- Find a preferred mode of communication
- Discover their sensory needs and develop strategies to help them access a wide curriculum
- Be given the opportunity to access a wider curriculum and change pathways
- Experience everyday living activities
- Have opportunity to independently interact with peers
- Experience a differentiated curriculum that challenges their existing skills
- Experience a working environment or community skills group
- Have access to a creative curriculum to support academic learning
- Use their skills out in the community such as library, shops, community centres etc
- Work individually, paired, in small groups and whole class.
- Have opportunity to apply functional literacy skills
- Have opportunity to apply functional problem solving skills
- Have the opportunity to attend out of school activities and further awards i.e. sports / extra-curricular
- Have their life skill achievements recognised individually.

Aiming for Independence Pathway

... be a happy, emotionally secure adult who can access supported or independent employment and living. This adult will have the skills to communicate their needs and wants independently. They will have the skills to continue to learn in their local environment and wider communities

Tracks

An aiming for independence pathway will enable the individual to:

- Access a full and challenging curriculum, differentiated where appropriate
- Acquire and use functional numeracy skills
- Acquire and use functional literacy skills
- Acquire and use functional ICT skills
- Have access to a range of work experiences and vocational options suitable to their needs.
- Have opportunity to develop and use independent living and personal skills
- Attend inclusion links where appropriate
- Have the opportunity to attend out of school activities and further awards i.e. sports / extra-curricular
- Participate in a range of accredited programmes appropriate to each individual.

SMSC and British Values / Enrichment Opportunities and Creativity runs through all areas and provides the breadth, balance and wealth of opportunities we continually provide. Where any pupil displays individual gifts/ talents or special interests – these are recognised, nurtured and supported throughout their education.
